

Zoltan Rihmer

Department of Clinical and Theoretical Mental Health and Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, Semmelweis University, Budapest

Dr. Zoltán Rihmer, Md, PhD, DSc, received his medical diploma in 1971. He received his PhD at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences in 1993, and his DSc in 2004.

Since then he has been working at the National Institute for Psychiatry and Neurology, Budapest, Hungary.

From 2007 he is professor of psychiatry at the Department of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, and director of the Laboratory for Suicide Research and Prevention at the National Institute of Psychiatry and Addictions, Budapest. His special interest is the clinical and biological aspects of mood and anxiety disorders, with particular regards to prediction of treatment response and prevention of suicide.